What OIG Audited

In FY 2018, improper Federal payments Government-wide totaled approximately $151 billion. The Improper Payments Elimination and Recovery Act of 2010 (IPERA) requires Inspectors General to annually determine whether agencies were in compliance with improper payment requirements and established additional requirements for agencies that were deemed noncompliant with improper payments requirements.

The United States Agency for Global Media (USAGM) is an independent Federal agency that supervises all U.S. Government-supported civilian international broadcasting. The USAGM Federal broadcasting organizations include the Voice of America, the Office of Cuba Broadcasting, and three grantees—Radio Free Asia, Middle East Broadcasting, and Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty.

The Office of Inspector General (OIG) conducted this audit to determine whether USAGM was in compliance with IPERA.

What OIG Recommends

Because USAGM was found to be in compliance with improper payments requirements for FY 2018, OIG is not offering recommendations as a result of this audit. USAGM's response to a draft of this report is reprinted in its entirety in Appendix B.

Source: OIG created using criteria from Office of Management and Budget Circular A-123, Appendix C.

OIG found that USAGM published on its website the FY 2018 Performance and Accountability Report, which included all applicable payment integrity disclosures, as required by Office of Management and Budget Circular A-136, "Financial Reporting Requirements." In addition, USAGM complied with the requirement to perform program-specific risk assessments. Specifically, USAGM performed quantitative risk assessment testing for three programs (Middle East Broadcasting Networks, Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty, and the International Broadcasting Bureau) as part of its rotational testing approach.
